6. Business

The committee discussed noise in residential areas between two neighbours. A municipal by-law can help assist with this problem. Without a by-law the O.P.P. can charge a person with mischief under the Criminal Code for interfering with other people's enjoyment of their property.

The committee also discussed the vehicles in the area that have made modifications to their bodies or tires. These vehicles may be pulled over in order to ensure that they still fall under the proper safety requirements.
7. Police Report - Sgt. Darren Luckasavitch

The committee was given the comparison report from year to year 2001-2007 by township as well as the 2007 Q1 Crime Statistics Report.

The detachment staffing is currently at:
