Tax Sale Policy

As a result of changes in the Municipal Act, if you have not paid your 2018 property taxes in full by December 31, 2019, you will be on the tax sale list effective January 1, 2020.

For more information, please contact Bryan Martin, CAO at 613.628.3101 ext. 222.

Property Tax Sale

If any properties do come up for tax sale they are advertised in the Eganville Leader and in the Ontario Gazette.

Not Receiving Your Tax Bill?

If your property tax bill does not have the correct mailing address as specified by your postal carrier, it may not be delivered to you.

Please ensure we have the correct mailing address on file for all your properties within the Township of Bonnechere Valley. If you need help determining your correct mailing address, contact your local post office.

A reminder that your final tax Bill for your 2019 taxes will be printed and mailed out the 1st week of August. With installments due: August 30, 2019 and October 31, 2019.

Watch "Live" Council Meetings Now

The Township of Bonnechere Valley is now "live" streaming their Council Meetings. Council meetings are normally the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of the month.

Change of dates for Council meetings do occasionally occur and they are posted on the Township's website. If interested in following Council and topics of discussion.
